The six questions

Do you live in Alum Rock, Ward End, Heartlands, Bordesley Green, Small Heath Sparkbrook, Balsall Heath, Tyseley, Hay Mills, South Yardley, Yardley West or Stetchford and have a diverse range of community connections?

Are you able to organise and motivate people to get involved who wouldn't normally feel confident to?

Do you want to improve the lives of people living in your community?

Could you support inactive people to try sports, social and civic activities to bring communities together and address the barriers that prevent more people getting involved?

Have you got creative ideas to empower communities and knit together all that is good in these areas for the benefit of all?

Are you passionate, positive and persuasive?

Local Community Action Officer

This post has been created in order to deliver the ambitions of Sport England's Active Communities Programme.

Birmingham and Solihull are one of 12 Local Delivery Pilots across England that are looking at innovative ways to reduce the levels of inactivity in our most disadvantaged communities.

The postholder will be employed by The Active Wellbeing Society (TAWS) which is an independent community benefit society which works with some of the poorest communities in Birmingham & Solihull to improve people's health and wellbeing through physical activity.
