

Interested in gardening & growing?

Join our fun, FREE and informative workshops on a variety of subjects, from composting, making raised beds to growing edible plants & how to engage people in a gardening project.

For more information contact:
brumgrowingnetwork@theaws.org

Edible perennial plants & forest gardening workshop Sign-up HERE

Interested in learning how to grow edible plants? Learn all about how to grow different and uncommon perennial edible plants from Felipe Molina (Mother Gardens, Food Forest Brum, Spring to Life, Fruit & Nut Village). The workshop includes a tour of Fruit & Nut village to show forest gardening in practice.

When: 10.30-12.30 on Tuesday 21st September

Where: Artefact, 1464 Pershore Rd, Stirchley, B30 2NT

Gardening workshop Sign-up HERE

Learn how to make raised beds and kickstart your own growing space with local growing practitioners Faith & Simbi (Glue Collective).

When: 10.30 – 12.30 on Friday 24th September

Where: Saheli Hub, 257 Edward Rd, Balsall Heath, B12 9LF

Growing & gardening workshop Sign-up HERE

Learn how to pot, grow and look after your own plants with local growing experts Faith & Jimoh (Crick Gardens).

When: 10.30-12.30 on Tuesday 28th September

Where: Omnia Practice, 73 Yardley Green Road, B9 5PU

Growing edible plants workshop Sign-up HERE

Learn how to grow your own edible plants from Felipe Molina (Mother Gardens, Food Forest Brum, Spring to Life, Fruit & Nut Village).

When: 10.30-12.30 on Tuesday 5th October

Where: Omnia Practice, 73 Yardley Green Road, B9 5PU

Growing edible perennial plants workshop Sign-up HERE

Come and enjoy a fun, free and informative growing workshop where you'll learn how to grow edible perennial plants from a local growing expert. Perennial plants live more than two years – providing food beyond a year's life cycle! Fill out the form below to register your attendance (limited spaces available).

When: 12.00 – 14.00 on Saturday 9th October

Where: Crick Gardens, Handsworth, B20

How to engage the community in growing' workshop Sign-up HERE

Looking at ways to engage more people in a gardening project? Come and enjoy a fun, free and informative session where you'll learn some tips and hints on how to engage the community in gardening with Felipe Molina (Mother Gardens, Food Forest Brum, Spring to Life, Fruit & Nut Village), as well as hear about Felipe's own experience first-hand. Fill out the form below to register your attendance (limited spaces available).

When: 10.30 – 12.30 on Tuesday 12th October

Where: Artefact, 1464 Pershore Rd, Stirchley, B30 2NT

Composting workshop Sign-up HERE

Interested in learning more about composting – whether it's for recycling your household food waste, to save buying bags of compost for your garden, or to create compost for a local growing space?

Come and enjoy a fun, free and informative session with composting practitioner, Claire Woolnough. You'll learn about different methods of composting, how you can start your own compost bin from scratch and how to look after it over time.

When: 12.00 – 14.00 on Saturday 16th October

Where: Nurtured Nature Wellbeing Garden, Corner of Howley Avenue, entrance via Felstone Road, Kingstanding, B44 9AB

Composting workshop Sign-up HERE

Interested in learning more about composting – whether it's for recycling your household food waste, to save buying bags of compost for your garden, or to create compost for a local growing space?

Come and enjoy a fun, free and informative session with composting practitioner, Claire Woolnough. You'll learn about different methods of composting, how you can start your own compost bin from scratch and how to look after it over time.

When: 14.00 – 16.00 on Tuesday 19th October

Where: All Saint's Church, 172 Herbert Road, Small Heath, B10 0PR

